CAMP DIRECTOR

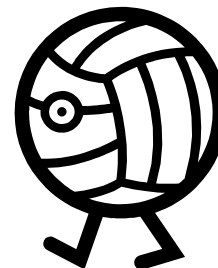

Carrie Steele - head coach

Coach Steele is the head girls coach at South. She is entering her 13th year as the head coach. In her fourth year with the girls she guided them to their best season in South history with a 26-5 record, first place finish in conference play and second place finish in Districts. As the boys coach she led the program to a 1st time appearance in the Missouri State Volleyball tournament in 2007. In addition, both programs have had players earn All-Conference, All-District, and All-State nominations.

Steele spent three years as an assistant at Incarnate Word Academy where she was part of 2003 and 2004 State Championship seasons. Before IWA she coached at SIU-Carbondale and Missouri Baptist University.

CAMP GOALS

- Provide young athletes an opportunity to learn and develop the fundamental skills of volleyball.
- Emphasis on learning required team skills to compete on the junior high and high school level.
- Provide an enjoyable and positive volleyball experience!
